

Tommy Bolton

President and Chief Executive Officer

Tommy joined EIM in August 2009 as the Company's Controller and was subsequently named Controller and Chief Accounting Officer. In February 2011, he was promoted to Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, responsible for EIM's accounting, finance, and information technology functions. In May of 2020, Tommy assumed the role of President and Chief Executive Officer.

Prior to EIM, Tommy was a Principal with Johnson Lambert LLP where he focused exclusively on insurance company audits and was responsible for the overall administration of the Charleston, S.C. office. Johnson Lambert LLP is a niche public accounting firm specializing in providing audit and tax services to the insurance industry. Prior to Johnson Lambert LLP Tommy worked in the Cayman Islands, first as senior associate at Ernst & Young and then as chief financial officer of a financial services company. Tommy began his career in 1997 in Charlotte, N.C. with BDO Seidman, an international accounting firm.

Tommy received his Bachelor of Science in Accounting from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte in 1997. He is a member of the AICPA and is a licensed CPA in South Carolina and North Carolina.
